2018 Summer Camp & Weekend Retreats

The Arc Mid-South has been “empowering individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities to achieve their full potential” since 1950.

In 1969, The Arc began its first respite summer camp to give families a break from the daily caretaking of their loved ones.

Then, seeing an increased need for respite services, The Arc began offering monthly weekend retreats.

This freed up time for caregivers to pursue their own lives while giving individuals with disabilities the opportunity to interact with their peers and experience social, recreational, and educational activities geared to improve their motor skills.

The retreats have a 3:1 client-staff ratio and are designed for youths age 8 and up.
